

SPIDERS DEFEAT RANDOLPH-MACON

Take Advantage of Errors of Yellow Jackets and Win First of Championship Games.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHLAND, VA., April 24.—Richmond College took the first game of the championship series with Randolph-Macon here this afternoon by a score of 9 to 2. The game on the part of Randolph-Macon was a comedy of errors. Richmond College scored two in the fourth chapter by two singles, coupled with a fielder's choice. In the seventh swing-around, Richmond College, with the Billikin man in their pockets, scored five tallies without a single hit, but the boneheaded errors on the part of the Methodists also conspired to make this chapter Richmond's big one. Not a Spider hit safe in the round; bunts, however, looked good to them, and their ability in this line brought them to the front.

Again in the last show-down did the Spider take advantage of the errors of the loose play on the part of the Yellow Jackets, with the result that two more men crossed the plate on a bunt and a fast, clean hit.

Credit is due to Gravelly for the fine way he handled himself, striking out eight men and allowing two passes. Had the Yellow Jacket twirler been supported throughout his work would have told a different story. The locals were unable to connect safely with Meredith when hits meant runs.

Monday Randolph-Macon plays Hampden-Sidney on the latter's diamond her second of the championship series.

Interest in Local Meet.
Local Horsemen Are Enthusiastic Over Outlook for Races and Horse Show.

Interest shown by horsemen of the State in the spring meeting of the Virginia Horse and Horse Show Association, to be held at the Virginia State Fair Grounds, on May 15-17 and 18, indicates that it will be the best meet ever held in the State.

James W. Graves has been, North looking after the race-horses during the past week, there being now about 1,000 of the animals, which will close before the meet here.

With only one other race meet in the East the middle of May, the entire race here are expected to be larger than ever before.

Virginia now has more high-class steeplechasers than any other part of the country, which insures a large entry in all races over the course. The track and steeplechase courses are in excellent condition.

Cluster Springs 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 5 3

Sandherr made a brilliant running catch of King's fly ball of short in the third.

Manager Lipe fell down as he was fielding King's bunt in the first inning.

Jimmy Ison secured the first hit for the Champions, Stafford should have fielded the ball, but he let it go to the outfield.

Baxter Sparks threw several fast ones close to Lipe's head. He hit the local manager in the first chapter.

With two down Sandherr and Titman smushed out singles in the ninth, but Ison flew out to left field.

Jack Ashton pitched a fine game. Several times he pulled out of bad holes by striking a batter out.

Mage made a wonderful running one-handed catch of Lohr's fly to right in the third.

Sparks pitched a great game against the Colts up to the tenth.

King led down two pretty bunts. He came within an inch of beating the one in the eighth.

By snatching Titman's hot one over second in the ninth, Fisher saved his team from defeat. In the ninth inning, of Sandy would have scored from second if the ball had gone to the outfield.

BEAT TARHEELS BY EIGHT POINTS

Washington and Lee Defeats University of North Carolina on Track and Field.

WON ONLY BY HARD PULL

Glasgow Broke Record of College in the 120-Yard Hurdles—Ran a Dead Heat.

LEXINGTON, VA., April 24.—The dual track and field meet between Washington and Lee and the University of North Carolina on Wilson Field to-day was very interesting and spectacular. The home team, which has been without a coach for the entire season, ran up 58 points against the strong bid of the Tarheels with 50. The latter showed better form than the Washington and Lee team, which won the meet only by hard pulls in the pinches. Wilson Field records were established as follows:

173-4 seconds: Williams, Carolina. Broad jump, 20 feet 3 1/4 inches; Winston, Carolina, 100-yard dash, 101-5 seconds.

Washington and Lee records were broken by Glasgow in the 120 hurdles, time 18 seconds. Searing, 220 hurdles, 28 3/5 seconds, and Sullivan, broad jump, 20 feet.

Searing and Woog ran two dead heats for the 220 hurdles. Captain McCown failed to do his usual fast time for the mile, though he won handsomely.

The track was extremely heavy from recent hard rains, thus accounting for the slow time.

Washington and Lee has its annual meet with the Virginia Tech on the field, May 6.
